

STREET HUNT RULES AND INFORMATION

DISCOVER ST HELENS. HAVE FUN. WIN MONEY.

Start by collecting your Street Hunt book from The Book Stop. The book contains a poem written with words from St Helens road names.

Photographs in the book act as clues, showing the street signs and their surroundings with the names removed. You have to work out what the streets are, by using the photographs and the emerging story of the poem to help you. Then fill in the blank spaces of the poem as you go.

The first person to submit a correctly completed book with all the right answers wins. You need to complete the poem by using words or phrases from the street names and complete the blank street signs with the actual name of the street.

The prize is the total of the book sales from 9th July 2022 until a winner is found, with a guaranteed minimum of £1,000 and a maximum of £6,000 if all 1,000 books are sold. The more people that play the game and join Street Hunt, the bigger the prize!

Read the rules to find out what to do if you think you have worked it out. The rules should also answer any questions you may have. These rules replace those printed in the book. (We had to delay the competition because of Covid-19.)

Check www.heartofglass.org.uk/street-hunt and Heart of Glass social media channels for regular updates of the prize fund.

Good luck and happy hunting!
Joshua Sofaer, June 2022

SIMPLE RULES

A poem has been written with words from road names in the borough of St Helens. A book of photographs shows the street signs and their surroundings, but with the names removed. You have to work out the names of the streets, using the emerging story of the poem to help you.

The first person, family or group to submit a correctly completed book with all the right answers wins. The prize is the total of the book sales until a winner is found, with a guaranteed minimum of £1,000 and a maximum of £6,000 if all 1,000 books are sold at £6 each. The more money we receive the bigger the prize pot gets. You can buy as many books as you want, and complete a book with friends/family if you prefer.

To win, you need to give us your copy of the book with all the blank signs clearly filled in correctly, and the poem completed too.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I THINK I HAVE WORKED OUT ALL THE ANSWERS?

Once you think you have all the correct answers, take your completed book to:

The Book Stop

St Helens
WA10 1NN

They are open 9.30am-5pm Monday-Saturday, except on public holidays. They will open additionally on Sunday 10 July 2022, 10am-4 pm.

If you think you have all the correct answers outside of Book Stop trading hours, you can choose to (but are not obliged to) email your intention to submit to info@streethunt.co.uk, indicating that you have completed the puzzle. You should include your name, a contact number, your postcode and the limited-edition book number printed on the back of your book.

Intention to submit emails will only be referenced if two or more people are waiting to submit entries as THE BOOK STOP opens. In the case that two or more people are waiting to submit entries

Intention to submit emails will only remain valid if the book is delivered to THE BOOK STOP within 1 hour of the next opening, i.e., by 10.30am the following day it is open. Any books received from 10.31am will be deemed to be submitted without an Intention to submit.

Please bring a sealable A4 envelope, addressed to STREET HUNT Competition Submission, Heart of Glass. Please mark the envelope “Urgent & Confidential”.

When you are at The Book Stop, the person on duty will date-stamp and sign the receipt slips at the back of the book and make a note of the time. One of the slips should be snipped off and given back to you. Please keep it safe.

Now put your book into the A4 envelope that you have brought, secure it, and sign over the seal. Hand it over to The Book Stop. When you get home, please email info@streethunt.co.uk to notify us that you have made your submission. We will contact you within one week (at the latest) to inform you if you have won or not. If you have not won, you will be free to collect your book from Heart of Glass to see which answers you got wrong but you will not be able to resubmit that book. Each book may only be submitted once.

If you have won, we will pay you the entire prize fund as published on the website www.heartofglass.org.uk/street-hunt. The prize is guaranteed at a minimum of £1,000 and will not exceed £6,000. We will also retain your winning entry.
